

Historical Highlights

- 1909 Albert Schuler, Sr. opens a combination cigar store and restaurant in Marshall.
- 1924 Albert purchased the Royal Hotel and Restaurant in Marshall and names it "The Schuler".
- 1934 Win Schuler leaves a high school teaching position in the Upper Peninsula of Michigan to join the family business and to run the restaurant in his father's hotel.
- 1940 Win expands Schuler's Restaurant by adding the Frontier Room and converts the adjacent building into a bowling alley.
- 1947 Bowling alley is converted into a dining room, the present Centennial Room.
- 1948 Honoring his love of history and Charles Dickens, Win renovates the the north side of restaurant to be the Dickens Room.
- 1952 Schuler's Bar-Scheeze is introduced in the restaurant and bar.
- 1959 Win's son, Hans Schuler, joins the family business and in 1960 takes over operation of the Bar-Scheeze plant and butcher shop in Marshall.
- 1968 Hans refines the secret Bar-Scheeze formula and introduces it in supermarkets.
- 1970 Hans named President of Schuler's organization.
- 1971 Schuler's Restaurant refurbished to conform to the turn-of-the-century look of Historic Marshall, and the original hotel rooms upstairs are closed.
- 1977 Schuler's Restaurant is proclaimed a Michigan Historic Landmark Site.
- 1979 Dickens Room remodeled to be The Inner Circle and a new room, The Courtyard, is added.
- 1982 Schuler Foods and Bar-Scheeze are sold to Vlastic Foods, Inc., a division of Campbell Soup
- 1983 Win retires, Hans acquires his father's interest in the restaurant and becomes Chairman and President of Win Schuler's, Inc.

- 1984 Larry Schuler, Hans' son, joins the company and becomes the fourth generation in the family business.
- 1987 Restaurant receives Restaurant Business' "Top 100 Award" and is rated three diamonds by AAA.
- 1988 Signature Room dining area with large corner fireplace is unveiled.
- 1989 Restaurant wins its 37th consecutive Travel Holiday Fine Dining Award.
- 1990 Schu's Bar and Grill opens in St. Joseph, MI under direction of Larry Schuler.
- 1993 New bakery constructed in kitchen so all breads, crackers, rolls, desserts are handcrafted for the restaurant and bakery items are offered for sale in the lobby.
- 1996 Heritage Cheese Spread created in Schuler's kitchens and offered to all guests as they arrive at the table.
- 1998 Restaurant refurbished- Winston's Pub expanded and Lodge Room introduced.
- 1999 Schuler's Restaurant & Pub recognized as a Michigan Centennial Business .
- 2004 Schuler's publishes Fresh Recipes & Warm Memories, a cookbook to mark the 95th anniversary of Schuler's. Hans Schuler's son, Jonathan, was the cookbook author.
- 2005 Schuler's adds Tasters Guild for fine wine events.
- 2007 Hans Schuler, Chairman & CEO, appoints son Larry Schuler, President of Schuler's Restaurant & Pub in Marshall.
- 2008 Schuler's receives the prestigious DiRona (Distinguished Restaurant of North America) award.
- 2009 Schuler's Restaurant & Pub celebrates the anniversary of its 100 years in business.