100 Days Of Summer Celebration On Tap At Schuler's Restaurant & Pub!

MARSHALL, MI, April 20, 2009 --- The weather is turning warmer and wonderful weekly festivities are coming your way, for a calendar full of fun centennial celebrations! The 100 Days Of Summer weekly schedule will officially begin April 28th. Every Tuesday will be Mug Night, followed by Wednesday Night Entertainment and Thursday, Grill Night.

Guests will be able to enjoy their favorite brew with Mug Night every Tuesday beginning at 6:00 pm. This is a very special tradition returning with a centennial collectable pewter mug being featured for purchase. Patrons can purchase a centennial pewter mug for $35.00. It will be filled with their first full mug of beer and then purchase refills of beer for a $1.00 off when they return with their mug every Tuesday! Anyone lucky enough to already have a commemorative mug, can bring it in and also enjoy the promotion!

Beginning Wednesday night April 29th, at 7:30 pm, a full line-up of great entertainment is once again on the weekly roster for the return of Wednesday Night Entertainment in Winston's Pub. The kick off April 29th, will feature Kim Hoag and Delbert Walling followed by Terry Lower and Edey Evans Hyde on May 6th, Dave Bannister May 13th, Steve Berkemeier May 20th and Kim Hoag and Delbert Walling returning May 27th to round out the month.

To complete your week, get ready for some great grill features and patio dining "alfresco" style with the return of Grill Night every Thursday beginning at 5:00 pm. Chef Phil will have special features each week for guests to enjoy the warm summer dining season. This is the perfect time to enjoy a Centennial Celebration cocktail or a bottle of new Schuler private label wine. If you have not taken the time to enjoy Schuler outdoor dining and the newly expanded patio, there would be no better time than "100 Days Of Summer" time!
